

Fee Policy and Payment Terms

At Hjorthlaw Advokatfirma, we emphasize transparency and clarity in our fee structure and payment terms to foster strong and trusting relationships with our clients. Each task is assessed individually, and fees are determined based on several key factors, including:

- Time Spent: The duration required to provide legal advice is a primary consideration in setting our fees.
- Specialist Expertise and Experience: Tasks that demand specific expertise or advanced knowledge may influence the fee.
- Complexity: The complexity of a matter can require additional time and resources, which may impact the fee.
- Client-Specific Importance: Fees may vary depending on the significance of the matter to the client and the value our advice provides.
- Financial Stakes: Substantial economic values involved in a case can affect the fee structure.
- Outcome Achieved: Positive and tangible results for the client may be reflected in the fee.
- Level of Responsibility: Tasks involving higher responsibility or risk for Hjorthlaw Advokatfirma may influence the fee.
- Urgency: Expedited matters or those with tight deadlines may incur additional costs.

As a general guideline, the hourly rate for attorney Helena Hjorth's work is DKK 2.400 excluding VAT (DKK 3.000 including VAT).

Our commitment is to deliver value to our clients by ensuring that our fees are fair and proportionate to the complexity, importance, and resources required for each matter. We value open communication and are always ready to discuss our fee structure to maintain transparency and client satisfaction.
